

WEATHER BULLETIN.
SIGNAL OFFICE, WICHITA, Kan., Nov. 11.—The highest temperature was 54°, the lowest 27°, and the mean 40°, with generally cloudless warmer weather, mainly stationary high barometer, gentle north-east to east winds.
Last year, on Nov. 11, the highest temperature was 50°, the lowest 30°, and the mean 40° and two years ago the corresponding temperatures were 44°, 27° and 36°.
FRED L. JOHNSON, Observer.
WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 11, 8 p. m.—Forecast until 8 p. m. Wednesday:
For Missouri and Kansas—Fair, slightly warmer, stationary temperature in Kansas, easterly winds.

THE G. A. R. MEMORIAL HALL.
DECATUR, Ill., Nov. 11.—Since the national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, in session at Boston, Mass., last summer, gave its hearty endorsement to the project of establishing a national memorial hall at Decatur, Ill., the birthplace of the order, and recommended that the necessary fund, $300,000, be provided by voluntary contributions, by the different posts of the order, the country, the Decatur comrades have been waiting patiently for Gen. Veszy, the grand commander, to take decisive action. That he has thus far failed to act has caused no little annoyance to the Illinois and other western comrades. A meeting of the National G. A. R. council was held at Decatur, Ill., last week. Decatur had a representative there in the person of J. M. Ciokey, who urged Gen. Veszy to act on the recommendation of the Boston encampment. He will do so before December 1, by appointing a general committee to take charge of the matter. The erection of the Memorial Hall does not entail permanent expense on the order. It only calls for contributions of 25 cents to 50 cents a member to raise the money to meet the expense of construction. The running expenses will be provided by the Decatur post and Sons of Veterans.

THE COLORADO COAL CENTRE.
Trinidad, Colo., is looming up as one of the future great coal centres in the United States, and there are well informed coal men who predict that the output will soon equal that of the most famous Pennsylvania districts. The output three years ago was, in its infancy, 1,000 tons per day. It has already reached 8,000 tons per day, and is expanding as rapidly as the railroad can make arrangements to haul away the coal to the markets of Texas, Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado, Arizona, and even New Orleans. For full information address Trinidad Land and Improvement company, Trinidad, Colo.

IRISH EVICTIONS.
DUBLIN, Nov. 11.—The threatened evictions on the Ophir estate were begun at Ansborg this morning. A fierce storm was raging all night, and the work of eviction was begun under a cloudy sky, the gloomy weather adding to the wretchedness of the scene. It was thought some of the tenants might resist the evictions, and a force of heavily armed policemen was on the ground to meet such an emergency. Sixteen families, comprising 100 persons, were ejected from their homes. A number of English visitors, including several ladies, witnessed the evictions, and afterward held an indignation meeting, at which the action of the estate was roundly denounced.

McKEE LOCATED.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Henry McKee, who some two years ago absconded with about $200,000 belonging to the Choctaw Indians, has been located. A prominent Missouri man in Seattle, Wash., some weeks ago, McKee, he learned, is stopping with his family at the Vancouver hotel, Victoria, Vancouver, and makes occasional business trips over to Seattle. The agent of the Choctaws here will at once proceed to get out papers, and the Washington authorities to take McKee into custody the first time he has the temerity to come upon United States territory.

PENNSYLVANIA EMPLOYEES.
PITTSBURGH, Nov. 11.—The grievance committee of the employees of the Pennsylvania lines west of Pittsburgh met here this morning, to promulgate and present to the general officers here a bill of grievances. The general committee consists of over 100 persons, and includes sub-committees from all the organizations of railway employees. A two-day secret session will be held here before the committee meets the railway officials. The committee from each organization will meet in the local quiet and the organization and arrange a schedule.

A HEAVY FAILURE.
NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—The assignment is reported of the John T. Walker & Son company, importers of silks, etc., No 81 Pine street. They are rated by R. G. Dun & Company at over $100,000. The firm is composed of John T. Walker, John W. Combs and Joseph Walker. William T. Ryle is made assignee. The liabilities are about $1,100,000, and the nominal assets are about $1,500,000.

A SLUGGING MATCH.
PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 11.—Articles of agreement for a fight between Jack Dempsey and Bob Fitzsimmons, the Australian, before the New Orleans Athletic club, for a purse of $12,000, were received here yesterday, and were signed by Dempsey.

A RIOT IN PROSPECT.
GRAHAM, Tex., Nov. 11.—Every peace officer in Young county is in jail, having been indicted by the United States grand jury for participation, either actively or passively, in the famous 1900 riot, for a purse of $12,000, were received here yesterday, and were signed by Dempsey.

SUICIDE.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., Nov. 11.—M. S. Jones, a member of the Hall & Williams Hardware company, suicided this evening, by shooting himself in the head. The company of which he was a member, is closing out business on account of recent severe losses. This is supposed to have induced insane despondency in Mr. Jones, which is assigned as the cause for his self destruction. He leaves a family.

BAPTIST MINISTERS.
NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 11.—The ninth annual meeting of the general congress of ministers of the United States opened here today, to last through Thursday. The convention was opened this afternoon at 2 o'clock with the theme, "The Proposed Basis of Christian Union," for discussion in the afternoon.

DECLINES THE HONOR.
OKMUNY, Kan., Nov. 11.—Benjamin Mitchell, who was elected to the position of the One Hundredth and First district, on the Alliance ticket, was in the state of Washington with religious services, and positively declined nomination and elected, and positively declined nomination to accept the honor thrust upon him.

THE DUTY ON ALCOHOL.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—The treasury department has decided that pure alcohol is dutiable at the rate of 10 per cent ad valorem, without regard to the use for which it is intended. This will mean the importation free of alcohol for the use of scientific or educational institutions.

EPISCOPALIANS.
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 11.—The thirteenth church congress of the Protestant Episcopal church of the United States was inaugurated, with religious services, at 1:30 this morning, in St. Stephens church. The inaugural address was delivered by Bishop Whitaker, who will preside over the congress.

AN INSANE DUKE.
ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 11.—Grand Duke Nicholas is about to be transferred from Yalta to his residence here. His doctors declare that he is incurably insane.

Immediate relief by using Preston's "Hed-Ake."

PERSONAL GOSSIP.
Pope Leo speaks French fluently, but knows no English.
Abram S. Hewitt and Levi P. Morton were originally journeyman tailors.
Dr. Hammond says that thin soles are the worst propagators of disease among women.
Capt. Meade, U. S. N., is said to resemble the late Gen. George G. Meade, his uncle, as the latter appeared when a young man.
Gen. Albert Pike, the aged chief of the Masons in America, is said to be an inveterate smoker, having used tobacco for fifty years.

Governor Francis, of Missouri, distinguished himself at Jefferson City by stopping a runaway team of horses in a crowded street.
Chauncey M. Depew has received an autograph letter from the Prince of Wales, acknowledging the receipt of his "Orations and After Dinner Speeches."

Carolus Duran is considered the best swordsman in Paris, and such is the prevailing terror of his skill that he has never yet been obliged to fight a duel.
Mr. Joseph Pulitzer, of The New York World, has so far recovered from his threatened blindness that he retains perfect sight in one eye. He wears blue eyeglasses.

John Habberton, who wrote "Helen's Babies," is very fond of the sea, and looks somewhat like a sailor, with his bronzed face, shaggy hair and loose shirt collar.

Viscount Barrimore, an Irish peer and a member of the English Society of Arts, is a salesman for the title establishment in Brooklyn and calls himself Kelly Harris.
Robert Ingraham, of Philadelphia, a guest of Capt. Eicholtz, at Gettysburg, found a gold coin on that battlefield. It was probably dropped during the battle.

Capt. Haines, of the steamship Etruria, and commander of the Cunard fleet, began his nautical career as cabin boy on a British merchant ship, of which he afterward became captain.

Governor Francis T. Nichols, of Louisiana, is a picturesque figure on account of his dismemberment—a result of the fortunes of war. He is blind in one eye and has lost an arm and a leg.

Gen. Daniel Butterfield always gives his wife in conversation the old fashioned old country title of "lady." Mrs. Butterfield is always mentioned by him and addressed by him as Lady Butterfield.
Pestonje Horowitz, the philanthropist, who founded the Cama hospital at Bombay, has given 25,000 rupees to the Bombay university, in order to encourage medical education among women.

John Dean Benton, the inventor of some of the best of the drop-a-nickel-in-the-slot machinery, who recently died penniless, also invented the models of steamships, monitors and cruisers seen in all exhibitions.
Gen. Sherman goes about New York almost invariably in the street cars. As a rule one of his daughters accompanies him, and the old warrior in jumping on and off the steps is as young as many men forty years his junior.

There is talk about one or two English grain vessels being adapted for the use of captive balloons at sea.
The new telephone cable between Paris and London contains four copper conductors, well insulated and armored. The circuit will be a metallic one.

It has been calculated that it would be possible to take from a section of the River Negro lakes, occupying about nine square leagues, upward of 2,000,000 tons of salt.
A new method of storing grain is being introduced. Steel tanks are filled with grain and by a suction pump the air is partly exhausted and a quantity of carbonic acid gas admitted.

Mr. Frank Della Torre, of Baltimore, has invented an instrument which he calls the explorer, by which he claims that all sounds can be heard and located on the darkest night and in the thickest weather.

The tired sensation of the optic nerve experienced by those using the electric light is said to be due to the fact that the luminous waves are of great intensity, and not to a preponderance of violet chemical rays.

The Academie des Sciences has submitted a new system of musical notation in which twenty-seven characters replace the 26 symbols now employed to represent the seven notes of the gamut in the seven keys.

Not to Be Expected.
Lawyer—You say that the poison which the prisoner placed before his victim was concealed in a white liquid, and yet you are not prepared to swear that it was milk. Don't you know milk when you see it?
Witness—No, sir.
Lawyer (paraphrasing)—Who are you, anyway?
Witness—I am a milkman.—Life.

A Fraud.
Brokeley (to dwarf in dime museum)—How much do they pay you, Gen. Blythman?
Gen. Blythman—Hundred dollars a week.

Brokeley—Then I'll bet that you're not as short as I am. And yet they advertise you as a dwarf.—Vanderbilt's News.

He (delightedly)—So you will marry me?
She (calmly)—On mature consideration I think I will. You don't amount to much, you're homely and awkward, but in Massachusetts you know we have to put up with anything that comes along.—Vanderbilt's News.

"Time Is Money."
Teacher (to class in grammar)—What is that familiar short sentence which brings time and money into close connection?
Voice in Back Seat—I know.
Teacher—Well, Tommy, what is it?
Tommy—Ten days or ten dollars.—Munsey's Weekly.

Why suffer? Preston's "Hed-Ake" will cure you.
Perhaps.
Miss Rowena—Think of a wishy washy, phlegmatic girl like her being named Stella!
Mr. Farham—"Stella" means a star. Perhaps they called her that, not because they thought her bright, but because she was beautiful in the dark.—Harper's Bazar.

Very Likely.
Mrs. Blunt (reading paper)—It's terrible!
Blunt—What?
"The county lunatic asylum was set on fire by the inmates."
"My! they must have been crazy."—Vanderbilt's News.

Preston's "Hed-Ake" is a specific for headache.

OLD CARS WITHDRAWN
And New Pullman Dining Cars now Running on the Vandalia and Pennsylvania Lines.

The old "dinners" are abandoned and entirely new dining cars, embodying the latest improvements, equipped with every convenience, finished in exquisite taste and fully up to the latest standard of excellence constantly maintained by the famous Pullman company, have been placed in service upon the Vandalia and Pennsylvania lines, between St. Louis, Indianapolis, Columbus, Pittsburg and New York, on those quick and popular train numbers six, nine, twenty and twenty-one.

No more brief stops for different meals! You can "fare sumptuously every day," at your leisure and in comfort while riding across the country at forty miles an hour, upon the vestibule trains of the Vandalia and Pennsylvania lines, in the new and luxurious dining cars of the Pullman company.

By a recent decision of the United States courts the patent vestibule cannot be used on other than Pullman cars. Particular attention is therefore invited to the fact that the Vandalia and Pennsylvania lines are operating Pullman sleeping and dining cars, which are properly fitted with that convenient and appreciable device—the Pullman Perfected Safety Vestibule. For special information please call upon agents of connecting lines, or address J. M. Chesbrough, assistant general passenger agent, 509 Chestnut street, St. Louis.

One of the most successful of the summer resort hotel clerk is beginning to find his speech after the past season's campaign. And if you will let him tell the story he is a much abused individual. "For instance," says one of them, "the clerk schedules on getting up at 7 o'clock. Well, at 6 a boy hammers on his door and says a lady wants to see him at once down in the office; can't wait a minute, and nobody else will do. Up jumps the clerk and falls down to the ground floor to find the occupant of Suite A, for example, laying for him. "Good morning, madam," says the clerk. "Dear how you have kept me waiting!" she replies. "Very sorry," says the clerk, wishing in his soul that he had kept her half an hour. Then she begins again: "I intend to spend the day in town, and got up early to see if you thought the 10 o'clock train was better than the 10:20. What do you think?" He's just got to grit his teeth and smile, and say that the 10 train is faster by two minutes, but that he thinks she would find less cinders in and better views from the 10:20. Then she'll thank him and take the 11:55 train."—New York Tribune.

Beecham's Pills cure sick headache.

Hereditary Nerve.

Old Crisp—Ah, you young rascal, what do you mean by helping yourself to my cigars?
Young Crisp—I'm curing myself of the cigarette habit, sir.—Punch.

If you have headache try Preston's "Hed-Ake."

Spoken Aloud.

Elbert (who sees the old gentleman's shadow)—Of course I disobeyed my father in going fishing, but when he finds out that I have taken a nice string to Mr. Cutley, who holds our farm mortgage, I think he'll not chide me.—Jokes.

Happy No.
"You are not in the race with me," said the Gold Coin to the Heart.
"You don't know what you are talking about. You may be able to buy a temporary advantage," rejoined the Heart, "but in the long run I'm sure to beat."—New York Sun.

A Total Failure.
Totting—Hello, Dimling! Where have you been?
Dimling—Nothing.
"Get anything?"
"No, nothing."—Punch.

Rats.
Will—Pooh! Rats never trouble anybody unless they are hungry.
Bill—Then I am thankful there are no rats about when I am hungry.—Yankee Blade.

Cures in fifteen minutes; Preston "Hed-Ake."
Too Imaginative.
Blinkers—That stranger says that once, when in a foreign country, the natives were about to attack him when he unfurled the American flag, stated that he was under its protection, and they slunk away in terror. I wonder what he is.
Winkers—A miserable liar.—Street & Smith's Good News.

A Financial Genius.
"Have you broken off your engagement, old man? What's the matter?"
"Well, I was hard up, you see, so I quarreled and had all my presents returned, and was able to realize on them. Couldn't possibly have raised the money any other way."—Harper's Bazar.

Must Be Insane.
"Your friend is a kleptomaniac."
"How so?"
"He steals my jokes, and publishes them as his own."
"Your jokes? Then poor Charlie must be suffering from insanity and not kleptomaniac."—Yankee Blade.

The Wheelbarrow is Ancient.
At present the wheelbarrow is known to be at least 600 years old, and not two centuries, as was at one time supposed. The next step is to show that William the Conqueror carried wheelbarrows with him when he moved his quarters across the channel from Normandy to England in the Eleventh century.—Exchange.

A Last Resort.
Mrs. Bingo—I noticed there was a rent in your trousers this morning.
Mr. Bingo—Thank heaven! Give it to the landlord when he comes.—Clothes and Furnisher.

The Coming Woman.
Mrs. De Style—What is the matter with that poor girl?
Bystander—We don't know, mmm. She just lays there helpless, and can't stand up at all.
Mrs. De Style—Poor thing! I presume her corsets are too loose.—New York Peck.

Baby clothes and children's garments need not be weighty to be warm. Bulkiness is a hindrance to comfort. There is no reason for using velvet trimmings on a runabout's dress; tucked flannels and clothes are equally objectionable. It is positively cruel to sew any buttons on the back of a child's dress.—Tribune.
